

Disc & Joint

Targeted Nutrition for Joint and Disc Relief and Healing

Did You Know...

Most joint and spine issues don't begin with a major injury – they often start with everyday wear and tear that slowly breaks down cartilage, reduces joint hydration, and strains the discs in your spine. Over time, this can lead to conditions like bulging discs, herniated discs, and sciatica – all of which can cause chronic pain, stiffness, and limited mobility. Supporting your joints and discs early with the right nutrients can help protect your spine, relieve discomfort, and keep you moving strong.

The HealthSource Difference

This chiropractic-formulated blend targets the root causes of joint and disc discomfort – supporting lubrication, hydration, and a healthy inflammatory response. It's a clinical-grade formula you won't find in off-the-shelf products, working hand-in-hand with your care to keep you moving, healing, and feeling your best.
